Friends, this is a Clock Prophecy Alert for May 7, 2025.

I am uploading this brief alert which will be posted to the archives a bit later, so for now it will only be posted as an Interim Update.

In the last few weeks, we have seen a remarkable escalation in international conflicts and even threats of nuclear detonation, hazards that are no longer confined to the Middle East or even to the war between Russia and Ukraine.

The Watch window that I marked from May the 5th to the 8th, with a vector point at about 2:11 this afternoon (on the 7th), is reaching that mid-point just a few hour after after this message has been uploaded.

I don't know if the first Trumpet will occur during this Window, or later in May, or if we may have to wait until the Spring of next year before we reach the start of the harvest.

If we reach Critical Mass before the Summer, we can expect major fireworks before the end of this month.

From here, things could go quickly or they may hold together a little while longer, meaning we may not see the first Trumpet until the deadline set for Iran by President Trump has run out in a couple of months.

One thing I didn't mention in the last Alert was the head wound event that in my vision followed the first Trumpet very shortly before the second Trumpet, so I want to address that now.

If we don't see the first Trumpet until after Spring, I expect us to reach the deadly wounding of the first Beast in the Fall or Winter, followed by the 2nd Trumpet in the Spring of next year, where the harvest would finally begin.

This all remains an open question until June the 21st since we have six weeks of Spring left to go, so remain in prayer and share this message with others.

We can see how the rapid decline in world order is bringing us to the opening of the 7th Seal, so keep Watching and I hope to catch up with you soon!
