

ROBAMA (An Image Soon to Be)

Robahma, Robahma... an image soon to be
From the past, rising up at last, number 666 you see

Don't take it, you could fake it, keep your soul in tact
The Mark is comin'... don't be runnin'.... it's all about eternity!

If I could, I would, escape the hell that's brewin'
Robahma, Robahma, it's the image now a-loomin'

You'll be told it's right, you'll be told all night
All day long they'll be sending out the lie!

It's the Mark, a walk in the Park
It will make you one with me... (meaning Satan)

Robahma, Robahma... an image soon to be
From the past... rising up at last... number 666 you see

You'll be told it's right, you'll be told all night
All day long they'll be sending out the lie!
