Friends, this is a Clock Prophecy Alert for July 19, 2025

I hope you have been blessed by the songs of prophecy on the website, and that you will share this music with others. I forgot to make it clear when I first uploaded The Lamb and the 144,000 that the lyrics were taken directly from the text of Revelation 14.

I will be uploading a second version of this song in a more contemporary format, titled, The Lamb on Mount Zion, in a few days.

Another scripture-based song, titled The Song of Moses, will be based on the text of Deuteronomy Chapter 32, a prophecy for the Lord's judgment upon his adversaries that I believe describes the takeover of the nations by the 144,000.

The Song of Moses is partially recited in Revelation 15 where the saints are seen playing their harps on a sea of glass.

You may recall that the sea of glass is linked to the aftermath of the 2nd and 3rd Trumpets when the great stone in Daniel and in Chapters 8 and 18 of Revelation strikes the Earth.

Now let's look at where things stand with respect to Critical Mass.

It is possible that we have already seen the first Trumpet, especially in light of US and Israeli military action against Iran, but a bigger climax for the first Trumpet may be coming, and we won't know for sure until we reach the head wound in Revelation 13.

This event involving the first beast will be a definitive marker for both the imminence of the 2nd Trumpet and the start of early harvest.

The Lord may well shorten the 1,260 days that follow the head wound, and I expect that he will, meaning the timeline may end in 2029 as we discussed earlier.

I would not have thought that the Epstein story would be a trigger event for what's coming next, but that may be where things are headed.

This individual probably had a connection to many foreign governments, including the United Kingdom's MI6, which makes perfect sense because the Antichrist team is already running MI6 and will soon put the Prince in power over what remains of Europe after the meteor impact.

President Trump is becoming a greater challenge to the globalists and now we see the start of investigations into the Obama administration, leading to an escalation that I believe will soon return the former President to power.

For us, this is not so complicated because we know which prophetic events have to happen before the harvest can begin.

A Rapture in the Fall will be all the buzz as Autumn approaches, but we have a unique window into the harvest through the four groups gathered in Matthew 20 and how these groups intersect with the four major crops of Israel in Revelation 6:6 beginning in the Spring.

We also await the Man-child's 13th year in the Spring of 2027 based on his birth in Revelation 12:2 where it fell on the Clock in 2014.

I believe that some Church saints will be included in the Spring catching up of the 144,000, and if this occurs next Spring, the Hebrew princes will be returned to Earth not later than their 13th year to begin their takeover of the nations.

In either event, most gentile believers will fall into the last three harvest groups, referring to Summer, Fall, and Winter.

Not long ago, we looked at why the Messianic temple in Ezekiel is the only temple remaining to be built, and why it must be occupied by Jesus when he returns.

For that reason, the Messianic temple cannot be polluted, which is why John does not see the Antichrist standing in the temple, or animal sacrifice on the altar in Revelation 11 where the temple is measured.

The citation of Daniel by Jesus was referring to the desecration of the temple in 70 AD by Rome's Titus, and to the removal of the foundation stones in 135 AD when the Bar-Kopka revolt was put down by Emperor Hadrian 65 years later.

Where Jesus says there is one standing where he ought not, he is referring to Emperor Titus, who stood with his guards inside the temple, even entering into the holy of holies in order to pollute it.

We can also see this prophecy as referring to the presence of Mohammed due to construction of the Al-Aqsa mosque standing on the Temple Mount where Jesus said it ought not to be.

While a future Antichrist will appear, he cannot enter into the Messianic temple as that would require yet another temple destruction, and that is not supported in scripture.

What about the passage in 2nd Thessalonians where Paul says one will be seated in the temple, showing himself that he is God?

In this passage Paul uses a Greek word that in the English becomes the word showing (G584), defined as a sort of exhibition in which one points to another rather than to oneself.

We can see by the text that this individual is not seen standing but rather seated, and that even without a verbal proclamation of divinity, such divine status is conveyed by reason of who he represents and the authority given to him.

The individual Paul is referring to here is an imposter, one seated on a false throne in a false temple, otherwise known as the False Prophet, the individual we know as a kind of false Christ seated at the Vatican in Rome!

As for Daniel, he says the final Antichrist will be one who denies every diety, not someone who claims to be one.

We have no reason from scripture to expect the future Antichrist to stand in the Messianic temple and I believe he may perish even before temple construction has been completed!

This takes us to the popular misquote of Daniel 9:25 where he says there would be 69 Weeks unto Messiah, not 69 Weeks unto Messiah's death.

The Lord's death is found in verse 26, where Daniel uses the Hebrew word kāraʿ (H3772) to say that Messiah would be cut off after 69 Weeks, as opposed to using the Hebrew word yôm, for at, which would exactly mark the end of 69 Weeks!

In other words, this passage prophesies that it would be Messiah who divides the 70th Week when he was cut off, so it isn't surprising that most bible scholars count three Passovers during Jesus' ministry (a total of about 3 and half years) before his crucifixion.

In closing, we expect Elijah rather than the Antichrist to prevent oblation on the new altar following his revelation of the Messiah to the Jews and before the temple is completed!

God bless as you continue to hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches:
