

The Song of Moses (Rev 15 / Deut. 32)

Selections & Music by Peter John Brandal

Great and marvelous are thy works, Lord God Almighty;
just and true are thy ways, Thou King of saints.

Who shall not fear thee, O Lord,
and glorify thy name? for thou alone art holy.

All nations shall come and worship before thee;
for thy judgments are made manifest.

REV 15:3,4

Give ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak;
and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth. (v.1)

He is the Rock, his work is perfect. (v.4)

Jacob is the lot of his inheritance. (v.9)

For the Lord shall judge his people,
and repent himself for his servants,
when he seeth that their power is gone. (v.36)

See now that I, even I, am he,
and there is no god but me.
I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal:
neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand. (v.39)

For I lift up my hand to heaven,
and say, I live for ever. (v.40)

If I whet my glittering sword,
and mine hand take hold on judgment;
I will render vengeance to mine enemies,
and will reward them that hate me. (v.41)

DEUT 32
(select text /
partial verses indicated by apostrophe)

I will make mine arrows drunk with blood,
and my sword shall devour flesh;
and that with the blood of the slain and of the captives,
from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy. (v.42)

Rejoice, O ye nations, with his people:
for he will avenge the blood of his servants,
and render vengeance to his adversaries,
and be merciful unto his land, and to his people. (v.43)

Amen
