

The Lamb & the 144,000 (Rev 14)

A Hebrew Ballad by Peter John Brandal

And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on mount Zion,
And with him an hundred forty and four thousand,
Having his Father's name written in their foreheads

And I heard a voice from heaven,
As the voice of many waters, and as a great thunder,
And I heard the voice of harpers and their harps

And they sung as it were a new song before the throne,
And before the four beasts, and the elders,
And no man could learn that song,
But the hundred and forty and four thousand,
Redeemed from the earth

These are they which were not defiled with women;
For they are virgins, and they follow the Lamb
Whithersoever he goeth

These were redeemed from among men,
Being the first fruits unto God and to the Lamb

And in their mouth was found no guile,
For they are without fault before the throne of God

And I heard a voice from heaven,
As the voice of many waters, and as a great thunder,
And I heard the voice of harpers and their harps!

Amen!
